

Katharine Eneguess
President Berlin/Laconia

Katharine Eneguess joined the New Hampshire Community Technical College System in October 2003 as Interim President of the Berlin/Laconia regional College. She was officially appointed in 2004. She has lead the College to successful completion of accreditation by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges Committee on Institutions of Higher Education, created a master plan for each campus and continues to strengthen relationships with the communities within which the College campuses serve.

Katharine came to NHCTCS from her own consulting firm Cloveridge Consultants, an organizational development firm specializing in organizational strategies and rural community development initiatives. For many years she served as Vice President of the Business and Industry Association and functioned as lead policy analyst for legislative, regulatory and government affairs issues, specifically working on education, human resource and rural policy. Katharine currently serves on the Society for the Protection of New Hampshire Forests, the New Hampshire Historical Society, Berlin Economic Development Corporation, Androscoggin Valley Economic Recovery Corporation, is an Incorporator of the Belknap County Economic Development Corporation, and co-chair of the NH Citizens Commission on the State Courts. Just prior to joining NHCTCS she served as a public member from NH on the New England Schools and Colleges Council of Higher Education Accreditation.
