

Alison Stebbins, CPA
Vice-President, Head of Vendor Management
Fidelity Investments

Alison Stebbins holds several degrees, including a bachelor's in anthropology from Mount Holyoke College in South Hadley, Mass., a master's in accounting from Northeastern University in Boston and a master's in taxation from Bentley College in Waltham, Mass. In New Hampshire, she has worked at numerous financial institutions, including the accounting firms Deloitte and Touche and Ernst and Young. She then started her own accounting firm, Stebbins CPA, in Manchester. Stebbins joined Fidelity in 2000. For five years she held a leadership role at Fidelity's largest regional center, in Merrimack, NH as the General Manager. Over the last three years, she has been part of the Procurement Team, first heading up Corporate Accounts Payable and now head of Vendor Management.

Stebbins was chosen as the 2008 NH Business Leader by Business New Hampshire Magazine—only the 2nd woman in 20 years. She has also been recognized as one of the state's 10 most powerful business people by the same publication. In 2008, she was honored along with her husband Hank with the City Year New Hampshire Lifetime of Community Service Award. Stebbins has served on numerous boards of directors including the Heritage United Way, the Greater Manchester YMCA, the Business and Industry Association of NH, the Greater Manchester Chamber of Commerce and the University of New Hampshire Whittemore School's Dean's Advisory Board.
