

Charles R. Lloyd Ed.D.

Higher Education Administrator

Dr. Chuck Lloyd is currently the President of White Mountains Community College. In addition to his role in administration, he crosses over to the faculty side of the college by teaching in the Business Department. Chuck was recently selected as one of New Hampshire's "Forty under 40" by the Union Leader and was previously awarded the NHTI Service Learning Award and Commissioner's Award for Service Excellence. In addition to administration and teaching, he maintains a strong passion for leadership and service. In the past few years, Chuck has offered dozens of workshops and presentations both internationally and in the States on a variety of leadership and management-focused topics. Chuck prides himself on relationship-building and actively participates in numerous community organizations. Originally from Franklin, New Hampshire, Chuck graduated from Keene State College with a Bachelor of Science, earned his Master's Degree in Education and Certificate of Advanced Graduate Studies from Plymouth State University, and Chuck's Doctorate is in Higher Education Administration from Northeastern University.