

Stephen J. Ellis

- Employment: Hartford Insurance Group – 38 years (Retired) Senior Vice President and National Director of Sales responsible for maintaining $13 billion of assets and selling $250 million of new business in the municipal retirement arena
- Town of Pittsburg: Select Board: Working on day to day issues also focusing on a new Economic Development Plan and building a new water system for the Town Village
- Volunteer Work: St. Anselm College: Board of Directors for over 16 years primarily working on student engagement, advancement, marketing and enrollment
- Boy Scouts of America: Board of Directors for the Councils in both Connecticut and New Hampshire. Served on numerous committees including Vice President of District Chairman awarded the highest volunteer award, the Silver Beaver
- Indian Stream Health Center: Board of Directors helping with enhancing the image of the Center and expanding services including the creation of a new pharmacy
- Tillotson Art Center: Board of Directors helping to complete construction of the Center creating an arts center for displaying paintings, showing of movies, and other performances including plays and musical events
- North Country Community Recreation Center: Board of Directors working to maintain a recreation center with activities for both summer and winter including a hockey rink while maintaining a year-round Olympic size swimming pool for many towns in the North Country
- North Country Chamber of Commerce; Board of Directors working with local establishments to help promote their business and working on special events such as the North Country Endurance Challenge and the Annual Moose Festival

Boys Varsity High School Coach: Helping coach both basketball and baseball over the last several years highlighted by winning the Class S Baseball Championship in 2009

Education: St. Anselm College, Manchester, NH – 1969, Biology Major