

Paul Holloway - CCSNH Board, Past Chair

Appointed to CCSNH Board, 2003

Elected Chair, April 2005

Paul Holloway is President of the Holloway Automotive Group, with four dealerships located in Portsmouth, Greenland, Exeter, and Manchester, NH. Holloway began his automotive career with General Motors Corporation and purchased his first dealership in 1967. He has been active on numerous automotive boards, committees and councils, and is past chair of the National Automobile Dealer Association which represents 20,000 dealers nationwide.

Holloway is deeply committed to education in the state of New Hampshire. He served on the University System of New Hampshire Board of Trustees for sixteen years, chairing the board during his final four years. He is a recipient of the Plymouth State College Robert Frost award for outstanding citizenship, and UNH's Lawrence Whittemore Distinguished Service Medal in recognition of his contributions to the school's programs. He holds an honorary Doctor of Laws Degree from UNH. Keene State College dedicated a new residence hall in his name and UNH named the recently constructed Holloway Commons dining hall in his honor. He has been inducted into the Temple University Gallery of Success in recognition of his outstanding achievements.

He is married to Anna Grace Holloway. They have two children, Debra and Scott, and five grandchildren.
