

President Charles Lloyd

Dr. Charles Lloyd brings strong passion for leadership and service to his role as President of White Mountains Community College. In the past few years, Dr. Lloyd has offered dozens of workshops and presentations on a variety of leadership and management-focused topics.

Dr. Lloyd was selected as one of New Hampshire's "Forty under 40" by the Union Leader. He was awarded the NHTI Service Learning award and Commissioner's Service Excellence award. Dr. Lloyd prides himself on building relationships and actively participates in numerous community organizations.

Dr. Lloyd graduated from Keene State College with a Bachelor of Science, earned his master's in Education and certificate of Advanced Graduate Studies from Plymouth State University, and his doctorate in Higher Education Administration from Northeastern University.