

Tiffany Eddy Bio

Tiffany Eddy has been part of the media fabric in New Hampshire for over 20 years. She anchored WMUR News 9 Tonight at 11:00 and spent over a decade crisscrossing the state while co-hosting the magazine program, "New Hampshire Chronicle," on WMUR where she produced hundreds of pieces on standout Granite State businesses and citizens.

She has interviewed many famous celebrities including, Paul Newman, Adam Sandler, Barbara Walters, Robin Roberts, Tom Bergeron, Steven Tyler and Barack Obama - just to name a few. Eddy has been awarded the prestigious Edward R. Murrow Award. She is also a three-time Emmy nominee and won numerous Granite Mic awards from the New Hampshire Association of Broadcasters.

Currently, Eddy runs her own media firm, Tiffany Eddy Media that specializes in strategic communications, media relations and professional development. In its eleven years in operation, the company has received numerous awards for excellence, including most recently being named Best PR Firm in NH by NHBR. Eddy is also the founder of S3 – Smart Strong Sassy a beauty company dedicated to helping women look and feel their best.